Pointe Teagmhála ar an Turas; Feargal Mac Thréinfhir 087 9628067

Cumann na bhFiann has a strict policy in relation to drugs, alcohol and cigarettes. Anyone in possession of drugs, alcohol or cigarettes or suspected to have taken any of these prohibited items will be dismissed from the trip and will have to be collected by their parents from Valentia Island. This is also the case for the speaking of English.

I understand the rules above and permit Cumann na bhFiann staff to search my child's bag should they deem it necessary if he /she has been suspected of taking drugs, alcohol or cigarettes.

Cumann na bhFiann's bus will stop and collect people from the following towns; Cavan, Dublin, Limerick, Killarney. You must make your way to these collection points and you will be collected in these towns.

Valentia Island

Cumann na bhFiann strives to provide a safe and supervised environment for young people to interact, in Irish, in a natural setting outside the education system. Whilst creating a positive attitude with regards to the Irish Language, Cumann na bhFiann, also enhances its members social and leadership skills. This particular trip, to Valentia Island, provides an opportunity for Cumann na bhFiann members to create new friendships and memories in a relaxed environment.

Valentia Island, itself, is located off the west coast of Kerry, west of Portmagee. Without doubt, the area is rich in history, scenery and activities all of which will be experienced on this Cumann na bhFiann tour.
